This matter comes before the Court for judicial review of the final decision of the Commissioner of Social Security denying Plaintiff’s application for Disability Insurance Benefits (“DIB”). In accordance with 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) and Local Rule 73.02, D.S.C., this matter was referred to the United States Magistrate Judge for pretrial handling. The Magistrate Judge issued a Report and Recommendation (“R & R”) on December 28, 2021, recommending that the decision of the Commissioner be reversed and remanded to the agency because the Administrative Law Judge’s failure to address the opinions of Plaintiff’s treating physician, Dr. Verrabago, regarding the need for work place accommodations and unscheduled restroom breaks in the determination of Plaintiff’s RFC and the erroneous finding of the ALJ that Plaintiff was not on mental health medications in assessing her subjective complaints. (Dkt. No. 25 at 17, 21). The Commissioner has advised the Court that she does not intend to file objections to the R & R. (Dkt. No. 26).

The Court ADOPTS the Report and Recommendation as the order of this Court, REVERSES the decision of the Commissioner pursuant to Sentence Four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g), and REMANDS the matter to the Commissioner for further proceedings consistent with this order.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
